

1 "County" is defined, "municipal corporation" is
2 defined, "civil unit" is defined, and "region" is defined.

3 Baltimore City, as you know, is presently
4 treated as a county for most purposes, but for some purposes
5 ~~it~~ is treated as a municipality, For clarity we include ~~and inclusion of~~ Baltimore
6 City within the term "county," ~~is for clarity.~~

7 ~~This makes clear,~~ this also clarifies of course, ~~that new counties which~~ 8 might be also ~~formed~~ would be ~~also~~ included within the definition of 9 "county."

10 "Municipal corporations" ~~are~~ is defined so as to 11 exclude Baltimore City and the counties. Multi-county
12 governmental units, such as the Washington Suburban Sanitary 13 Commission are also clearly excluded. ~~I say this again~~
14 Although ~~because~~ in some sections of the ~~existing~~ present Constitution ~~there~~ 15 specifically ~~is a specific exclusion, but it is perfectly clear under~~ de such authorities 16 this definition clarifies that multi-county authorities would be 17 excluded.

18 "Civil units" is used to mean a unit of local 19 government, other than a municipality, furnishing county
20 services in part of a county which is entirely within 21 and subject to the control of the county. The term does
